10.1 Young Persons

Health and Safety Law defines people by age:

- A young person is anyone under eighteen years of age (young people)
- A child is anyone who is not over compulsory school age. He or she has not yet reached the official age at which they may leave school, also referred to as the minimum school leaving age (MSLA).

Under The Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999, it requires employers to assess the health and safety risks to all their employees. Under the Regulations the College recognises that there are particular responsibilities towards young people, such as:

- Assess risks to all young people under 18 years of age, before they start work; to ensure the risk assessment takes into account their psychological or physical immaturity, inexperience, and lack of awareness of existing or potential risks; to introduce control measures to eliminate or minimise the risks, so far as is reasonably practicable.

The risk assessment will take into account these following factors:

- The fitting-out and layout of the workplace and the particular site where they will work
- The nature of any physical, biological and chemical agents they will be exposed to, for how long and to what extent
- Type of work equipment will be used and how this will be handled
- How the work and processes involved are organised
- The need to assess and provide health and safety training

The extent of the risks that are identified in the risk assessment will determine whether the college has to restrict the work of the young person. Except in the special circumstances, the College shall not employ young people to do work which:

- is beyond their physical or psychological capacity
- exposes them to substances chronically harmful to human health, e.g. toxic or carcinogenic, or has effects likely to be passed on genetically or likely to harm the unborn child
- exposes them to radiation
- involves a risk of accidents which they are unlikely to recognise because of, e.g. their lack of experience or training or sufficient attention to safety
- involves a risk to their health from extreme heat, noise or vibration.

These restrictions will not apply where young people over the MSLA are doing work necessary for their training, under proper supervision by a competent person and providing the risks are reduced to the lowest level, so far as is reasonably practicable.

The College shall let the parents / guardians of any children still of compulsory school age, know the key findings of the risk assessment and the control measures that will be introduced before the child starts work or work experience.

Senior Management Team and Heads of Departments are responsible for carrying out young persons risk assessment.

Approval for the required action to remove or control risks will be given by the College Bursar/Estates Manager.

The College shall obtain parental consent to employ a child of compulsory school age and provide the local authority with relevant information on the child so that he or she can be issued with an employment permit.

The College recognises that young people need training most when they start a job and need training to increase their capabilities and competencies to a level where they can do the work without putting themselves and others at risk. The College shall ensure that training is made available and undertaken.

Young people shall also receive training, instruction and information on the hazards and risks present in the workplace and on the preventive and control measures put in place to protect their health and safety. This training shall include an introduction to health and safety, for example including first aid, fire and evacuation procedures. As well as training, the College shall ensure young people are supervised by competent persons at work.

Young persons training and supervisory requirements will be identified, arranged and monitored by the School Leadership Team and relevant Heads of Departments.

11.0 Accidents/ Near Misses

- a. All accidents resulting in injury must be reported to the Bursar on Accident/Incident Report Forms held by Matron. Accidents to staff must be recorded in the Accident Book, also held by Matron in the Medical Centre. Incidents or near misses must also be reported to the Bursar. Copies of accidents and near miss reports will be held in the Bursar's office
- b. To prevent recurrence, accidents should be investigated by the Head of Department or Master/Mistress-in-Charge at the time of the accident. The Accident/Incident Report Form acts as an aide-memoir to ensure that all relevant information is collected.
- c. Investigation results and any recommendations are to be reported to the Bursar, who will decide what further action should be taken and whether the accident must be notified to the Health & Safety Executive (HSE). Guidelines on notifiable accidents are located in the Accident Reporting Procedure Document.
